Our approach to Community giving

Empowered and Inclusive Communities

Working alongside communities to support them to be empowered, inclusive and to lead positive change

- ✓ Regional development & wellbeing
- ✓ Tangata whenua wellbeing and aspirations
- ✓ Identity and belonging
- ✓ Tangata whenua youth and community sector
- ✓ Growing key leaders
- ✓ Growing generosity
- ✓ Impact investment
- ✓ Eastern Pacific

Community groups and leaders use their local knowledge and insights to transform their communities. We support:

- ✓ Community groups and leaders that are making positive change
- ✓ Communities who are taking positive action to promote intergenerational wellbeing
- ✓ Equity, social cohesion, and inclusion in our communities especially with regard to culture, gender identity and social or economic status
- ✓ Community-led solutions
- ✓ The development of the social enterprise sector, especially for Māori enterprise
- ✓ Growing generosity in our communities
- ✓ Recognition of Māori as Tangata Whenua of Aotearoa
- ✓ Projects in key regions especially Taitokerau / Tairāwhiti / Horowhenua / Whanganui
- ✓ Village-led enterprise development in the Eastern Pacific

Regional Development and Wellbeing

We support

- ✓ Community led initiatives that build local capacity and capability to deliver long-term solutions to social issues.

Tangata Whenua Wellbeing and Aspirations

- ✓ Māori community led initiatives and enterprises that support intergenerational wellbeing.

Identity & Belonging

- ✓ Initiatives to support Aotearoa to be inclusive, cohesive, and equitable – especially with respect to racial equality, resettled communities, transgender, Takatāpui and intersex young people.

Tangata Whenua, Youth and Community Sector

- ✓ Support the Tangata Whenua, Youth, and Community sector to be strong and capable.
- ✓ Ensure the well-being and welfare of the people working in that sector.
- ✓ Initiatives to help develop and grow the capability and capacity of key community/sector leaders, especially those that are working to address the priority areas that TTF is funding.

Growing Generosity

- ✓ Initiatives that help Community Foundations to continue to grow the level of generosity in New Zealand communities.

Impact Investment

- ✓ Initiatives that support social enterprise and impact investment sector to be robust and sustainable.
- ✓ Impact investment opportunities that are developed in key regions, especially Māori-owned and led.

Eastern Pacific

Initiatives that

- ✓ Identified by Volunteer Service Abroad that fit within TTF's overall hopes for 'Community' funding.
- ✓ Support the development of village-led enterprises that result in more resilient communities and livelihoods and reduce reliance on overseas remittances.
- ✓ Mitigate the impact of climate change.
